

Short bio:

Mélanie (her, she, elle), MSW, RSW is a strategist, trainer, social worker and organizer.

She brings over two decades of experience in the health and social services sectors.

Grounded in the ethos of liberation and social justice, she has worked in sexual and reproductive health, community development, harm-reduction and popular education.

These experiences shaped her favourite ways to learn and teach: through stories, art and things that make people laugh.
